

A paediatrician at this practice is a member of the Australian Paediatric Research Network. The network aims to improve the health of children and adolescents through research.

Your paediatrician might ask you to take part in an ethics-approved survey about Autism Spectrum Disorders. You can choose if you want to take part.